Trist Ward.—At a large and enthusiastic meet ing of the Independent Whig Electors of the First Ward, held on the evening of Thursday, 20th inst, WILLIAM OAKLEY was called to the Chair, and Josn T. LORTON and WILLIAM THOMPSON appointed Secretaries. The object of the meeting was briefly stated by Charles

E. Corsen, after which the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we regard the nomination made by the Congressional Convention of this District as being of a char-acter hostile to our interests as operative incomes of the community—we being fully impressed with the importance of the high trust delegated to the individual selected to re present us in our National Legislature. We had reason to suppose and right to demand that he be a man of the Peo-ple, not the representative of the few, but the fearless, capaple, not the representative of the few, but the fearless, capable and usflinching champion of the many.

Resolved, That this meeting do cheerfully and unanimously recommend to the support and suffrage of the Independent Whig Electors of the Third Congressional District JOHN B. HOBBY, a man long and favorably known as the friend of the working man, a practical and straight-forward Democratic Whig, and, in brief, a man combining the capacity and intent to subserve the interests of the whole people.

Resolved, That in presenting this nomination to the public we are well aware that it will meet with fierce opposition. we are well aware that it will meet with fierce opposition from certain influential and wealthy sources; yet being sincere in our intentions, we appeal to the good sense and manly independence of the 'bone and sinew' to come boldly forward and award to us that support which the nature of our cause and their dearest interests demand.

D Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $5.50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashism and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not soid at this price, but at $4.50. These he recommends as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5.00 under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest of the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied. Try him. (s20tf) O. FISH, 157 Broadway.

Fur Hats at $3 50.—The subscriber having had a number of applications for a FUR HAT, combining the qualities of beauty and durability, at a reduced price, has made arrangements with his manufacturers by which he will be enabled, on Wednesday next, Oct. 12th, to offer to his numerous customers, and the public generally, an arti-cle which, for fineness of material and beauty of finish, he feels confident will be equal, if not superior, to 1 my thing of the same description that has, as yet, been offered. D' Professor Buchholtz's Compound Syrup of Capitaria.—This invaluable medicine is presented to the American public as the less remedy yet discovered for Consumption, Liver Complaint, Chronic, Cough, Colds, Hoarseness, and all Pulmonary Affections—It was invented by Br. Buchholts, of Germany, Professor of Medicine and Chemistry in the University of Erfurth, Prusented by a reward of one thousand sounds from sia, who received a reward of one thousand pounds from sia, who received a reward of one thousand pounds from the King of Prussia, as an expression of his confidence in its merits, with the exclusive right to prepare and sell it in his kingdom. The public can have the fullest confidence in this being the original preparation, as the proprietor ob-tained the recipe from a nephew of the inventor, (a German physician of the same name.) who has given his affidavit that it is the same article. This medicine is purely vegeta-ble and entirely free from marphine or opiam, which forms the hasis of nearly all the court remedies now in use, and the basis of nearly life from merplane or opinin, which of the basis of nearly all the cough remedies now in use, and contains no ingredient that can possibly injure the most delicate constitution. It operates directly upon the lungs and liver, when first takes sometimes produces sickness at the stomach and increases the disposition to cough, but this is attended with less pain and easy expectoration. It removes the ulcerated and unhealthy parts of the lungs, entirely and could be dispass, and restores the system to irely eradicates the disease, and restores the system to

The fact is admitted by most physicians that person The fact is admitted by most physicians that persons may live and enjoy health with but a portion of the lungs remaining, which proves conclusively that diseased lungs can be cured—it is the design of this remedy to procure this result—and if taken according to the directions and in the early stages of the disease, such will be its effects.

There are thousands of persons who are taught from their youth that they inherit consumption and that an early grave must inevitably be their portion. To such we would say, with the fullest assurance of the truth, that this is a remedy which the insect assurance of the farm, the insect assurance of the farm and by its timely use the disease may be checked and entirely removed. This medicine is entitled to the confidence of the community from the fact of its favorable notice in Europe, and the high standing of the laventor. We do not wish to exaggerate the virtues of this article to induce people to purchase it, but are willing to let it rest upon its own superior merits, and would beg the public not to class it among the medical humbugs of the day. —We beg to call the reader's attention to the tollowing advertisements of the efficacy of Dr. THORP'S Carminantia; and in doing so it may not be amiss to say that we mantia; and in doing so it may not be amiss to say that we are no admirers of quackery in any form, and should not notice this article if we believed it to be a quack medicine. We know, from observation, that this medicine has effected some extraordinary cures. From our acquaintance with Dr. Thorp, who is a regularly educated physician, we have no hesitancy in saying that he is an honest, fair dealing man who would on no consideration be concerned in a "humbug," for the purpose of making money. The reader may be assured that there is no deception in the following certificates. They are genuine and honest, and explain the true circumstances of the cases and cures they describe.

Dear Sir: A few months again nathing but a miracle could seem to reach my case, and if I were to tell the truth I should not expect to be believed. I know, sir, that the prejudices of the public against specifics are so strong I prejudices of the public against specifics are so strong I cannot reasonably expect if you should spread my case be-fere them, that many of them will even read it, much less make an experiment, but you are at liberty, however to do it if in your judgement there are those whose prejudice-are not too much set against all patent medicines to prevent them from giving what I have to say a candid bearing. Last June, I was taken with a severe fit of pleurisy which left me with a constant cough and a very free and offensive left me with a constant cough and a very tree and obelaste expectoration, so much prostrated as to be confined to the house, appetite poor, taste nearly lost, very severe night swents. When lying on my right site I would strangl-nearly to suffocation; a great share of the time I was under the necessity to rest and sleep sitting up, on account of pain and suffecation. I had regular hectics every day, and was reduced in strength and emaciated much, attended with extreme weakness; my feet and hands were much swollen. I raised at least a pint of matter every day, which was offensive, sweetigh to the taste and very sickening. I was very chilly and thirsty in the afternoon of each day. Dr. Eddy of Staten Island attended me, and succeived in reducing the pleuristy, but the above tearful symptoms setting inhe said I had the consumption and was beyond cure. I inquired of him whether he could render me any permanent help, and he told me he could not. I had beard of the case of Kev. Redfield and Williams of New-York, and after availing myself of a knowledge of the effects of your Carminan its upon them, and a description of the cases which so clearly set forth my own, that I determined to try one bottle. After using half of the first bottle I found I was gaining a little strength, and my appetite began to increase; by the time I had used the whole bottle my night sweats and expectoration, so much prostrated as to be confined to the tie. After using the strength, and my apperite began to increase; by ing a little strength, and my apperite began to increase; by the time I bad used the whole bottle my night sweats and the time I had used the whole bottle my might sweats and fever had left me entirely; after I had used two bottles and a half I threw off much blood, mucus and pus; there must a half I threw off much blood, much and pus; there must have been several quarts; so great was the quantity that my triends thought it was impossible I could live after so much loss of blood. Dr. E. was then immediately called, and thought I must now die, but from this I began to mend and mought, and I now feel quite strong and able to walk the streets with little latigue. I commenced taking this medicine last August and am still using it, and I do succerely become last August and am still using it, and I do succerely become last August and am still using it, and I do succerely become accompany to the said. lieve it will complete a perfect care from what it has a JACOE SLATE. ready done.
